Bra	ins	tor	mi	na

Wh	nen brainstorming a list of foods to improve upon, I considered all of the following:
	☐ Foods that don't taste great
	☐ Foods that can only grow in a few locations
	☐ Foods that grow very slowly
	☐ Foods that could use more nutritional value
	☐ Foods that are susceptible to bugs and disease
	☐ Foods that are susceptible to flooding and drought
Ве	coming a Food Engineer
	The problem that I identified with my chosen food item is an important problem that affects many people throughout the world.
	My solution is relevant because it directly addresses the problem.
	My solution incorporates elements of either selective breeding or genetic engineering.
	The positive outcomes of my solution outweigh the possible negative outcomes.
Ma	rketing and Advertisement
