Organization and Layout Design/Graphics	Content is well organized, using headings or bulleted lists to group related material. Graphics are informative and support the plan. Slides are visually appealing and readable.	Content uses headings or bulleted lists to organize information, but the overall organization of the topics appears flawed. Graphics are informative but do not support the plan. Slides are readable but lack appeal.	Content is logically organized for the most part. Slides are hard to read. Graphics are used but not all of them are informative or support the plan.	No clear or logical organizational structure is shown, just lots of facts. Graphics are not used or do not support the plan or provide information.	___x 5
Workload	The workload is divided and shared equally among all team members. The final product is cohesive (seamless integration of work).	The workload is divided and shared fairly among all team members. Some evidence of cohesiveness is shown.	One person in the group is viewed as not doing a fair share of the work. Cohesiveness of the project is lacking.	Several people in the group are viewed as not doing their fair share of the work. The project has no evidence of cohesiveness.	___x 1
Content/Plan	All seven components are included in the plan. Presentation is persuasive and original.	At least five components are included in the plan. Presentation shows some originality and some persuasion techniques are used.	At least four components are included in the plan. Presentation lacks originality and few persuasion techniques are used.	Three or less components are included in the plan. The plan is not persuasive or original.	___x 10
