

Team Members _____

Date _____

Scoring Guide for Oral Presentation

	Absolutely (3 points)	Somewhat (2 points)	Not Really (1 points)
Your plan to save Wilbur is clearly explained.
Your plan to save Wilbur is clearly explained to the audience.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You are able to answer all of the audience's questions about your plan.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You are prepared and have obviously rehearsed your presentation. You have a smooth, flawless delivery.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Your plan to save Wilbur is plausible and supported by characterization.
You are able to persuade the audience that your plan to save Wilbur will work and that it is a good one.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You convey how the personality traits of the individual characters contribute to their actions and support your plot.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Your multimedia slides support your oral presentation.
Your multimedia slides support the oral presentation by outlining key points but do not give away the details.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You have included your cluster map and discussed how you brainstormed ideas to write the new ending.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You use the presentation slides as a visual cue only and explain characterization and your plot in more depth.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Oral Presentation Score      / 24

Student Comments:

---

---

---

Teacher Comments:

---

---

---