

MOTOROLA RAZR i: The Full-Screen Phone

Introducing the powerful new Motorola RAZR i with Intel Inside®. With power, speed, and an edge-to-edge display, in an impossibly compact design, it's everything you want in the palm of your hand. Intel Inside® boosts the performance of your browser, Google Apps™ and camera while delivering great battery life. Motorola RAZR i's instant-launch 8-megapixel camera can capture 10 pictures in less than a second - making sure you never miss a moment. Stay mobile for longer with its impressive up to 20 hours of mixed usage time<sup>1</sup> and maximize every last ounce of power with Motorola's unique SMARTACTIONS™ app. And because RAZR i is part of the Motorola RAZR family, it's built with premium protective materials like Corning® Gorilla® Glass, DuPont™ KEVLAR® fibre<sup>2</sup> and a splash-guard coating, which protects even the electrical boards inside.
