

Intel Science Talent Search 2009 - By the Numbers

2	Number of times there has been a tie for first place
2	Number of 2009 Intel STS finalists who are varsity athletes
3	Chance in 10, over a historical review, that a Science Talent Search finalist went to high school in New York
4	Number of Science Talent Search finalists awarded the National Medal of Science or National Medal of Technology
5	Number of 1st place Science Talent Search winners from California since 1942
6	Number of 2009 Intel STS finalists who serve as writers/editors on school publications
6	Number of 2009 Intel STS finalists with perfect SAT scores
7	Number of Science Talent Search finalists who have won the Nobel Prize
9	Number of 2009 Intel STS finalists who were top winners at the Intel ISEF 2008
10	Number of MacArthur Foundation "Genius" grants awarded to Science Talent Search finalists
11	Number of years Intel has sponsored the Science Talent Search
12	Number of 2009 Intel STS finalists who lead at least one school club or association
14	Age of the youngest winner in Science Talent Search history
15	Average length in minutes of a judge's interview
18	Number of 1 st place Science Talent Search winners from New York since 1942
30	Number of 2009 Intel STS finalists who are musicians
30	Average number of years in a professional scientific field for a Science Talent Search judge
34	Number of Science Talent Search finalists who are members of the National Academy of Sciences or National Academy of Engineering
70	Percentage of Science Talent Search finalists who go on to complete an M.D. or Ph.D.
110	Number of Science Talent Search finalists from Pennsylvania since 1942
164	Number of Science Talent Search finalists from Illinois since 1942
198	Number of Science Talent Search finalists from California since 1942
906	Number of Science Talent Search finalists from New York since 1942
1998	Year that Intel Corporation took over sponsorship of the Science Talent Search from Westinghouse
7,916	Farthest number of miles traveled by a Science Talent Search finalist to the final competition in Washington, D.C.
12,400	Dollars awarded at the first Science Talent Search in 1942
1,043,000	Dollar increase in prizes awarded since Intel assumed sponsorship
1,250,000	Dollar value of scholarships and prizes awarded at the Intel STS 2009 competition